

Rose is happy with her new life in Tabor with her brothers family, and her slowly warming relationship with Andrew, publisher of the Tabor Picayune. The only blight is the next door neighbor of Homespun Theater, Mrs. Pluch. Andrew has his own troubles with the increasingly annoying Myrna, part-time receptionist, gossip, and town know-it-all. When newspaper customers who irritate Myrna suffer vandalism, Andrew is unwilling to suspect her -- but who else can it be? Rose and Andrew joins forces to investigate, and are delighted with how well they work together. Love is in the air as the wedding of Andrews daughter approaches -- and frustration, as conflicting clues and red herrings lead them to a preposterous conclusion.
