

Titus Flavius Josephus (37 – c. 100), born Joseph ben Matityahu, was a first-century Romano-Jewish scholar, historian and hagiographer. He fought against the Romans during the First Jewish–Roman War as head of Jewish forces in Galilee, until surrendering in 67 to Roman forces led by Vespasian. Josephus recorded Jewish history, with special emphasis on the first century AD and the First Jewish–Roman War. His most important works are The Jewish War and Antiquities of the Jews. This collection includes all of Josephus surviving works and links to free audiobook version of all works. Contents The Antiquities of The Jews The Wars of The Jews Against Apion The Life of Flavius Josephus An Extract Out of Josephuss Discourse To The Greeks Concerning Hades Note that Josephus' authorship of the Discourse To The Greeks Concerning Hades is questioned by some scholars who instead attribute the work to Hippolytus of Rome.
